17th July 2024 service attempted 10.04am, 2.10pm, 6.22pm and 9.17pm. Individual fitting description of Mark Skipper seen in the window multiple times, but refused to answer the door.

18th July 2024 9.11am an elderly woman answered the door. She said her son was ill and couldn't come to the door. A man approximately 76 years old came to the door. She identified as Janette. She said she would accept the papers and give them straight to her son. She said he was aware of the court case in America and his solicitor was dealing with it to contact him and stop going to the house. I mailed all court documents, including second amended complaint first class post to same residence marked confidential & private addressed to Mark Skipper on 18th July 2024.
